ORAL ORDER
(Passed on 20th April, 2006)

The petitioner has preferred a revision to the Government of India against the Order granting lease in favour of the 3rd respondent herein. It appears that along with revision the petitioner has also made an application for interim order. The revision filed by the petitioner is yet to be heard and disposed of. Since the Govt. of India has not passed any order in the interim application, the petitioner has approached this Court by way of this writ petition. Since the petitioner has resorted to the statutory remedies by preferring the revision before Govt. of India, there is no good reason for me to step-in under Article 226, at this stage. It is hoped that Govt. of India, if there is any delay to dispose of the main petition, would consider the interlocutory application filed by the petitioner for interim relief, on priority basis. With the above observation, writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
